

BYE-BYE BLACKBIRD

Starring Karen Knowles

A SALUTE TO ART DECO MUSIC

Bye Bye Blackbird, A Salute to Art Deco Music, Starring Karen Knowles will revitalize the most loved songs from the Art Deco period, featuring classics such as 'Someone to Watch Over Me', 'When You're Smiling', 'These Foolish Things', 'My Baby Just Cares for Me' and 'Begin the Beguine' from well renowned composers such as Gershwin and Porter. Artists among Al Jolson, Ella Fitzgerald, Louis Armstrong and Sarah Vaughan all made these well crafted songs famous. Bye Bye Blackbird will also include material from Karen's U.S. recording "Moonglow" which features another Cole Porter song 'Every Time we Say Goodbye' and the popular 'There I've Said it Again'.

Karen Knowles has been touching Australian hearts for decades commencing her career through television on Young Talent Time and quickly moving to success in all fields of entertainment. An award winning recording artist throughout her career she became the highest selling female recording artist for two consecutive years, starred as the female lead in the stage musical 'Big River' and was lead singer with the legendary group 'The Seekers'. Bye Bye Blackbird is the ideal platform to showcase Karen's extraordinary talent.

Bye Bye Blackbird will include collaboration by acclaimed musicians John Thorn (musical director for 'Spontaneous Broadway' and Bob Downe) and David Cameron (The Seekers, Marina Prior). Performing with Karen will be three of Australia's most highly accomplished musicians.

Bye Bye Blackbird Starring Karen Knowles will take the audience on a journey to a time in music history that was truly magical - when lyrics and melodies were so carefully crafted by songsmiths of extraordinary talent.

Be moved, enriched and wholeheartedly entertained by Karen Knowles as she revitalizes the superb songs of the Art Deco period in Bye Bye Blackbird.
